

Pastor's Perspective

OK, so will someone tell me where the month of September has gone? Last month at this time we were hurriedly making final preparations for celebrations of PVUMC's 50th Anniversary on the weekend of September 10 & 11. Jeanne Scott and her committee were putting their final touch on six months of work—Program Books, t-shirts, the Ronald Williams' print, the covered dish luncheon, the time capsule, the Saturday evening Musical Revue, the Sunday morning worship service. On top of their work, each of our administrative committees—SPRC, Finance, Trustees, Nominations, and Church Council—were meeting in preparation for an earlier than usual October 2nd Charge Conference. Added to all of this was the startup of so many of our various programs which are tied to the beginning of a new school year—Children's and Youth Ministries, WEE Care Preschool, our Wednesday Night Suppers and Bible studies. And let me not fail to mention the birth of Emily Jane Hanson and the fact that one of PVUMC's pastor's was on paternity leave. So I've answered my own question.

But I am thankful to be a part of a church that is actively engaged in offering Christ to the world, and doing this in so many exciting and joyful ways. Many of you have heard me say this in Church Council—offering Christ to the world, and making disciples of Christ is "our main thing." This is the purpose of every church. Every worship service, every Sunday school class, every Wednesday Evening Bible study, every Friday night gathering of Celebrate Recovery, every Sunday evening session of Youth Breakout, every rehearsal of our Chancel Choir, or Hand Bell Choir, or IGNITE, or the Bridge or WOW Praise Teams... and all the rest... is a means by which we offer Christ to the world. Likewise, every administrative meeting is the means by which we undergird our mission and ministry. So I do not mind the busy-ness when I know we are doing that which ultimately matters. I hope you feel the same.

I want to close this month's "Perspective" by offering a word of gratitude to our 50th Anniversary Committee for doing such an outstanding job putting everything together for our September 11 celebration. I want you to know that the following persons served on the steering committee—Jeanne Scott (chairperson), Mike & Linda Page, Linda Nunalee, Kay Creech, Lora Clark, Trish Crogan, Linda Gregson, Shirley McLeod, Kem Gonzalez, Michele Martin, P.J. Bolduc, Charles George, Trish Archer, and Jared Hanson. Of course the United Methodist Men provided the grilled chicken at the covered dish; and the United Methodist Women assisted with the luncheon set-up. I'm sure to have missed someone, and if so, I am truly sorry.

I am thankful that several former pastors of PVUMC were able to be present—Eckie & Shirley Lancaster, Tim Russell, Jim Lee, Duane & Heidi Partin, Bill & Patricia Braswell.

Speaking of Duane Partin, did you hear him hit those McCartney high notes during the Beatles song at our Musical Revue on Saturday evening? And speaking of the Musical Revue, well... let me just say I have never seen so much talent in one church. Director PJ Bolduc, Emcees Cameron Edwards & Tommy Nunalee (who wrote all of their comedic material), the live band of accomplished musicians, and 130 performers and stage hands made it a night we won't soon forget. We came together to remember and laugh, to sing and reminisce. And amidst the joy of music we also found ourselves worshipping. I don't know how you guys made that all happen, but thank you. What a great church family!

Grace and Peace, Pastor Randy

PVUMC YOUTH WORSHIP ARTS

CLC Sound System Training

On Saturday, October 8 at 9:00 a.m., a basic training session will be offered to anyone interested in knowing how to turn on the new system in the CLC and get sound out of it. We will literally begin where the on/off switches are and how to plug a microphone in and get it to work. We will cover more advanced topics as time allows but you stay for as much of the training as you like. You are also welcome to just come and see some of the capabilities of the new system to better understand what it allows us to do. RSVP to Karl in the music office if you plan to attend.

Special Services in October

We will be celebrating special services in the month of October. Beginning with October 2nd, we will celebrate Holy Communion with Christians around the world on World Communion Sunday. On October 16th, our worship will focus on children and the needs of children around the world on Children's Sabbath. On October 23rd, our worship services will be led entirely by the laity of the church. Laity Sunday is celebrated each year to recognize that we are all ministers in the church with the ability and gifts to worship God and to work together to bring about transformation in the world. With all of these special Sundays in October, you won't want to miss a single week of church!

United Methodist Women News

The UMW apologizes for any inconvenience that we may have caused by canceling our August 28th General Meeting. Since the District had cancelled their activity for that Sunday due to the weather, we felt that it would be best for us to follow their lead. I know that many of you were looking forward to hearing about Emily's trip to Haiti. Emily will be sharing her experiences with us on Sunday, November 13, at our last General Meeting of the year. Hurricane season should be over and let's hope that the weather isn't cold enough for snow or ice!!!

On Wednesday, October 5, the Mildred Thoburn Circle will host the 50th Wedding Anniversary Celebration. We look forward to celebrating the couples in our congregation who have been married 50 years or more. Be sure to attend Wednesday Night Supper for this special evening.

The following Saturday, October 8, will be the UMW Conference Annual Meeting in Fayetteville at Methodist University.

On Sunday, October 23rd, the District Annual Meeting will be held at Hampstead UMC. Since the District Meeting is so close this year, let's have a good turn out from PVUMC. Our own Emily Innes will be "Connecting with Love" and sharing with us her experiences as the Vice President of the Women's Division. Registration and refreshments begin at 2:30. Don't miss this program. You will be blessed!

Our annual Fall Fun Day will be on Saturday, October 29. There will be a yard sale, bake sale, country store, games for the children and goodies for breakfast and lunch. Plan to "try out" those costumes early and participate in the costume parade. This is the UMW's main fundraiser for the year to support mission programs for women, youth, and children.

For those ladies in our congregation who do not belong to a circle, I invite you to attend any of those listed below. Just call the circle chair or Susie Lupton, 371-1487, if you would like more information regarding UMW. WE NEED YOU and would love for you to be a part of PVUMW!

Prayer Shawl Ministry

Renew me this day in your love.

Grant me hope to sustain me.

May this prayer shawl be for me a sign of your healing presence.

May it warm me when I am weary;

May it surround me with comfort to ease my suffering.

May it encircle me with caring when I am in pain.

Know that Jesus loves me.

(Excerpt from the card that is distributed with the prayer shawls.)

In May, the Prayer Shawl Ministry expanded the distribution of shawls and blankets to family members of our congregation. As our ministry continues to expand we are finding it hard to insure that everyone in our Pine Valley family who needs a shawl is receiving one.

We need your help!

The Prayer Shawl Team is asking that when a shawl is needed that a request form be filled out and placed in the Prayer Shawl mail box located in Communications Central. This will help us be sure that no one is missed as most of those making the shawls have been members of PVUMC for five years or less and don't know all congregational needs. Your help with this is greatly appreciated. Our ministry will only be effective for all our members with your help.

Recently we have added several new members to our group and would welcome additional participation. We meet on the second and fourth Mondays from 10 a.m.-12 noon and on the first Wednesday from 3-5 p.m.

Scouts News

You may have seen the Scouts in the church parking lot over the last couple of weekends and wondered what they are up to. The troop was working on its gateway for the Tri-District Camporee at Camp Bowers at the end of September and started the carving of its totem pole. Gateway sections are being prefabricated for faster erection the Friday evening of arrival at the Camporee. The theme will be Pioneering, with activities focused on Scout skills in the area of lashing (each troop should build a gateway and an 'action' gadget out of poles and lashings, carve a totem pole, know their knots for competition activities). Initial planning for October's overnight (sailing and power boating skills) on Masonboro Island is underway and will be a training focus in the beginning of October. The weekend will start with sailing activities working on the sailing merit badge as well as just having fun on the water.

On Saturday, September 14 the Troop and Pack had a joint service activity in support of Mother Hubbard's Cupboard food pantry at Harris Teeter. We believe we kept Roy Hill busy delivering food to their distribution center in Wilmington due to the success of the drive. This is a continuing service that the church and Troop support. With the support of Pack 224 this was one of the most successful food drives we've been involved in.

Mark your calendars - the Troop will be sponsoring a chicken barbeque on Friday, November 4 (serving lunch and dinner) so keep your menu free for that day and help support the troop. Lunch meals with a large enough order will be delivered, or can be picked up at the church; dinner will be pick-up only. Tickets should be available in the Fellowship Hall starting the second Sunday in October and can also be obtained from any Scout or Leader.

The Scout bulletin board in the Fellowship Hall outside the kitchen is continuously updated with pictures of the activities that the troop has been engaged in, so browse when you have a chance or if your son is interested in Scouting. Take some time to review to see what activities the boys participate in and are planning for the future thanks to the support of PVUMC. Any boys ages 11 - 18 that wish to consider joining the troop are welcome to visit. We meet weekly and have at least one monthly overnight during each month of the year, as well as service activities. Troop Meetings are held on Monday nights at 7:00, shifting from the Gym to the Fellowship Hall starting November 1st. Additionally, Pine Valley also sponsors Cub Scout Pack 224 for boys from First Grade to 5th Grade. It's a great way to prepare boys for future scouting activities and have a great time in the process. Den meetings vary based on the age of the scout and Den he is with so please contact a Leader for information on meeting times. For further information about either of the Scouting programs at PVUMC, contact Scout Master Jerry Jones at 794-9238 or Committee Chair Keith Ward at 791-6079.

United Methodist Men News

The Fall Hebron Trip is October 21-23. We will depart early Friday morning and return home Sunday afternoon. Your expenses would be meals, a housing fee, and contributions towards fuel. Senior Adults

“Let them praise His name with dancing.” Psalm 149:3

ATTENTION YOUTH and ALL SENIOR ADULTS! On October 23 the Youth and Senior Adults will join together for the third annual inter-generational activity. This year we are excited to join together for an old-fashioned Hoe-Down, so get ready to do-si-do, promenade and swing your partner. Our own well-seasoned, professional caller will be Mr. Ralph Kornegay. There’s no need to be intimidated. Ralph will lead us through every step.

The square dance is an American institution, beginning in New England when the first settlers and immigrants brought with them various national dances. As the population spread southward and westward, so did the dances. Square dancing filled the social need for pioneers to meet neighbors. Today in squares of eight across the country, Americans of all ages are “do-si-doing” themselves to longer, healthier, and happier lives. If you can walk, you can square dance. It’s been said that “square dancing is setting friendship to music.”

The Senior Adults will be serving pizza and dessert to our youth at 6:00 p.m. followed by square dancing. We’re anticipating great fun and fellowship, so to all our youth:

PLEASE COME!

INTERGENERATIONAL SQUARE DANCE
SUNDAY, OCTOBER 23, 6:00 P.M. in the CLC

On a more solemn note, we call your attention to, and ask for prayers for our members who are full-time caregivers. Over four million older adults experience difficulty with at least one activity of daily living, such as walking, dressing, getting in and out of bed, getting around indoors, bathing, and preparing meals. This number is projected to grow to over seven million people by 2020. Of these numbers, one out of three depends on family members for this care. It is a full-time and confining responsibility. As you pray, please remember especially our own members who are full-time caregivers.

Wee Care News

The classes at Wee Care are entering October with a complete celebration of fall! The colors and topics of conversation revolve around FALL! Everything from what to wear on cooler fall mornings, to what foods that we eat and see, are different during this season and are all covered in the classes. During this month we also welcome the visit from the local firemen and the BIG RED TRUCK, as well as the taking of our fall school pictures. Our kindergarten class is experimenting with vegetables this year as they plant frost-hardy tomatoes and several different kinds of lettuce in the pots out on the playground. We shall see in 90 days if we are eating a salad from our very own garden pots!

A favorite activity at Wee Care is our Fall Hoe Down. The classes each take turns and participate in different developmental activities set up in the gym. These activities are run by parents and staff, and allow the students a low key experience much like a carnival.

In addition to all the classroom activities, our 4 year old classes and kindergarten resume their weekly trips to the facilities at Brightmore as well as The Woods at Holly Tree. These are important times, not just for the residents, but it also allows our students intergenerational contacts. This is often new to some of our students without grandparents nearby.

October is a very busy time here at Wee Care as we look forward to our next month of celebration.

In HIS service,
Linda Gregson

Missions and Outreach

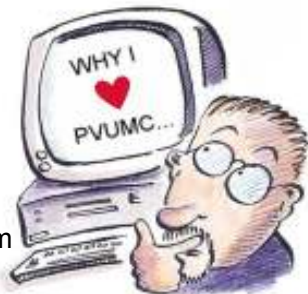

Wilmington Interfaith Hospitality

The Wilmington Interfaith Hospitality Network (WIHN) unites communities of faith in a collaborative effort to assist homeless families. On a rotating basis, 13 host congregations provide accommodations and meals for up to four families for one week, four times a year. An additional 25 congregations support the hosts, providing material, human, and financial resources to support the program. Volunteers from the congregations provide meals and support services. Our mission is to provide Cape Fear's homeless families with emergency and transitional services that assist them in regaining their independence. PVUMC will be co-hosting WIHN at Winter Park Baptist Church during the week of October 16-23. PV provides volunteers for Sunday (16th) and Friday (21st) overnight stays and 2 hour shifts on Saturday, October 22, as well as several dinner meals and van drivers during the week. WIHN offers an opportunity for volunteers of all faiths to reduce homelessness and transform lives. If you would like to know more or sign up to participate, please call Jeanne Scott, 799-9139

Would You Like to Share Your Story?

We're going to have a new feature on our new upcoming website— "What Our Members Have to Say". It is our hope, through this page, to encourage visitors looking at our website to come and visit us for worship services! Would you like to submit a brief testimonial of what PVUMC means to you? Maybe you have a story about what brought you to this church? Please feel free to share your thoughts with others in the community and even around the world. Submissions should be sent to: kelly@pvumc.net. Also, please include a photo of yourself or your family as we would like to display a photo with each testimonial. Or stop by Kelly's office at the church and she'll take one of you. The number of stories that will appear on the website will be determined by how many submissions we get. If the number is large enough, we may rotate them occasionally. Thank you!

If you would like to have the newsletter e-mailed to you each month, please contact Kelly Northey in the church office, 791-0353 or kelly@pvumc.net.

Common Threads, a ministry that provides butterfly pillowcases to Hospice and AIDS patients, will host a workday at PVUMC on Saturday, October 22 from 1-4 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. You do not have to know how to sew to participate. Volunteers are needed to measure, cut, pin and iron, too. We have a fun time together while creating lasting memories for families of terminal patients. All supplies are provided. Bring a drink and/or snack and your favorite pair of scissors. Inside each pillowcase is the scripture, "I will lie down and sleep in peace for you, O Lord, make me dwell in safety" Psalm 4:8. For more information, please call Jeanne Scott, 799-9139.

You are invited to a reception for new members of PVUMC, Sunday, November 6 in the Fellowship Hall during Friends & Fellowship, 9:00-10:00 a.m. Church members who have joined since May 2010 will be honored. This is an opportunity for you to meet them, invite them to visit Sunday School classes, circles, choirs, etc. All are welcome!

Have You Celebrated Your 50th Wedding Anniversary?

The Pine Valley United Methodist Women invites all PVUMC couples married 50 years or more to a celebration in your honor during an upcoming Wednesday Night Supper.

Wednesday, October 5, 5:15 p.m. in the CLC Gym

Please RSVP to the church office by Monday, October 3 at 12:00 noon. Bring wedding pictures to share.

PVUMC's 50th Anniversary t-shirts are now for sale in the front office. There are still plenty of shirts, but some sizes are running low. The front desk volunteer or Charles George can help you. They are $10, and the 2X size is $13. Make checks payable to PVUMC with "50th t-shirt" on the Memo line. Hurry before they're all gone!

Missional Giving: Spotlight on Apportionments

As United Methodists, we interpret the Great Commission to mean we are to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. We are part of a global church body with ministries and missions that transcend the local church. Our tithes and offerings support the worship, music, and fellowship at 3788 Shipyard Boulevard, but we also support missions that reach far beyond Wilmington through the apportionments paid from the PVUMC budget to the United Methodist Church.

What are apportionments? Apportionments are the framework for ministry and mission between PVUMC and the vast network of United Methodist churches to which we are connected. In essence, apportionments are the first fruits of the church body, money offered from the gifts God has given, to spread the bounty of the church equally. The apostle Paul spoke to the church in Corinth about donations to the church in Jerusalem for “a fair balance between your present abundance and their need” (2 Corinthians 8:13b-14a) with the understanding that when you have need later, then others will provide. This is a connection between Christians to bear each others’ burdens and lift each up to their best for God.

Apportionments are calculated to emphasize the situation of the local church in relation to other churches in the Annual Conference. The United Methodist Church General Council on Finance and Administration explains the new formula for calculating each church’s apportionments as a way for the church to share its gifts in proportion to its abilities. The formula does not count the number of members to estimate how much each person should pay. Instead, it looks at the expenses of the church over the last four years, but not including capital investments in the church buildings and campus, missions activities, or evangelism efforts. Apportionments for PVUMC for 2012 are $170,470.

Apportionments from each church are pooled together to create justice and equity for benevolences that are specified by The United Methodist Church. The apportionments fund building new churches, paying missionaries, expanding Christian education; undergraduate college and graduate-level education at a United Methodist-related university in Africa; seminary and pastoral education; 11 historically Black United Methodist-related colleges in the US; bishops’ salaries and benefits; Christian unity through partnership with groups such as the World Council of Churches, World Methodist Council, and National Council of the Churches of Christ in the USA; and the administration of the United Methodist Church.

A Note from the Trustees

To the congregation:

I hope that everyone has noticed some of the changes going on around our church campus. The Board of Trustees are excited about the upgrades, repairs and renewal that has been taking place. In recent years our capital budget has been minimal, and the result is that there are several issues related to our buildings and facilities that need to be addressed.

In a time of economic stress and uncertainty, I'm sure that some have also wondered how we have been able to afford new flat screen TV's, new cabinets, new CLC carpet & paint, repair roof leaks, vent fans, air-conditioning units and ceiling tiles; or how we could construct a new health ministry room, or plan a major classroom remodel. The answer is that these improvements have been possible through God's blessing and your generosity. It's amazing what can be accomplished when God's people tithe and support the general budget of the church, and when deep discounts are given by church members who work in various service industries, and when we are blessed with many willing volunteers.

Our vision as a Board of Trustees is to grow in unity through the full use of the facilities God has entrusted to us. Ten years ago my son played on the hallway floor of the CLC; 10 months ago I would not have allowed him to do so; today I would allow him to once again.

New families are coming into our PVUMC facilities each week. Their first impression of the church is shaped by the condition of our facilities, our care of God's house.

In addition, today's young people live in a fast-paced digital age. Is it not our responsibility to meet them on their path?

And it is important that we provide for the needs of our senior adult members—meeting the needs of accessibility and comfort are important in caring for those who have given so much of themselves to the church.

The members of your Board of Trustees are excited about all that God is doing among us and we believe God has wonderful plans for us as we faithfully seek and serve him. We will be sharing more about some of the short and long-range plans we feel are important in order for PVUMC to move forward in its ministry of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

In His service,
Neal Nesbitt, Trustee Chair

PARENTS:

The youth team wants to share with you that we will be exploring the sensitive topic of sex for the first three Sundays in October during Breakout. We will be using The Truth About Sex, featuring Biblical teaching from Doug Fields. We will have an alternative program for our 6th graders and other youth who choose not to participate in the study. Please contact Mary Stephens at 799-4720 or Pastor Jared if you have questions or concerns.
